Unify contract, risk, and usage data into a single, trusted system of record for your entire technology estate. Gain complete visibility and control across ITAM, FinOps, SaaS and AI so you can reduce waste, govern risk and confidently manage the hybrid estate from AI and cloud to containers and the data center.

Technology spend and risk management solutions on the Flexera One Platform

When siloed teams manage complex and ever-evolving technologies, savings, visibility, efficiency, security and compliance decrease dramatically. Flexera One provides AI-powered, normalized, and enriched technology intelligence so you can understand and manage your entire technology ecosystem to reduce waste and minimize risk.
