Take the first step at FinOps automation

Reserved instances (RIs), savings plans or committed usage discounts (CUDs) are meant to give you more value for your cloud budget. However, as you leverage them across more services and cloud providers, the complexity of managing them manually can easily lead to waste.

With Flexera One Cloud Commitment Management (formerly Spot Eco), you get more value from each dollar spent while minimizing financial lock-in on all your cloud services.

Get budget and time back with Flexera One Cloud Commitment Management

Highest savings

Maximize commitment savings and minimize waste

Total coverage

Managet more than 60 compute, DBs, storage, analytics, SaaS and AI services

Respond to change

Adjust quickly to any changes in usage, environment or cloud provider policy

“Even with the company’s largescale, dynamic environment, Flexera One Cloud Commitment Management allows Arcadia to have more than 90% of on-demand usage covered by RIs and savings plans to meet surges in demand—something the company didn’t think was possible.

Maximize your commitment value

Blend AUTOMATED

Combine savings plans, standard and convertible RIs and CUDs to balance high savings with flexibility

Layer AUTOMATED

Constantly adjust to actual usage with frequent purchasing of micro-commitments

Seed AUTOMATED

Purchase convertible micro-RIs that can be expanded to cover usage bursts

Increase AUTOMATED

Increase the size of an existing convertible commitment without locking you into long-term commitments

Remove waste AUTOMATED

Trade underutilized convertible RIs to increase total utilization and coverage

Extend AUTOMATED

Alter a convertible RI to cover smaller capacity over a longer commitment period

Consider spot instances AUTOMATED

Flexera One Cloud Commitment Management integrates with Flexera + Spot’s autoscaling solutions, enabling you to unlock even greater savings

Capture marketplace deals PARTIALLY AUTOMATED

Flexera One Cloud Commitment Management monitors the AWS standard RI marketplace 24/7 for attractive offers, generating additional savings
